lief: This little babe my womb conceiv'd, The smiling infant I with joy rereiv'd; That wo-man al-so bore a son, Whose vi-tal thread was quick-ly spun, One house we Bore my soft darling from my arms a-way, And left her child behind, a lump of life-less clay.

And how, O im-pious! dares to claim My right a-lone, a mother's name.

The image displays a page from a musical score for the hymn "The Church of the Holy Spirit." The score is written for a choir and piano. The vocal parts are arranged in four staves, each with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are: "fame of the just shall e-ter-nal-ly last, But the fame of the just shall e-ter-nal-ly last." The piano accompaniment is written in two staves at the bottom, featuring a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The score is divided into four measures, each containing a vocal staff and a piano staff. The lyrics are repeated in each measure, with the word "But" appearing in the second measure of each system. The piano accompaniment is continuous throughout the piece.
