Deși am folosit terminologia propusă de V. Martînov care împarte întreaga istorie a muzicii în patru perioade (cantus planus, muzica res facta, opus-muzica și opus post-muzica [1]. Conform muzicologului și culturologului A. M. Lesovicenko, cultura muzicală de tip european se distinge printr-un „complex de elemente muzical-culturale, constituite în Europa în decursul secolelor XVII și XVIII și răspândite apoi în întreaga lume devenind la mijlocul sec. XX drept proprietate universală a culturii umane” [2 p. 114]. Fiind și pictor-amator, conform informațiilor bibliografice din dicționare și encyclopedii (vezi, de ex., [3 p. 53–55]). Schița istorică atestă faptul că „începând cu anul 1884 instruirea în școala Capelei se efectuează după programele conservatorului cu eliberarea certificatelor de liberi profesioniști tuturor absolvenților, confirmând nivelul de studii superioare” [4]. Numele compozitorului este menționat în componența colectivului didactic al Gimnaziului nr. 2 din Chișinău...: „Profesorii: <...> de cânt – pr. Berezovschi Mihail Andreevici, de muzică — capelm. Iosif Iosifovici Sedleacek” [5 p. 22]. Instituții de învățămînt care asigură instruirea muzicologilor [6]. V. Gutu a activat ... și în Odesa în calitate de profesor la conservator, care a fost fondat pe baza colegiului, transformat, la rândul său, din clasele de muzică de pe lângă IRMO [7]. Fapt dovedit de T. Danița în teza de doctor [8]. Foarte rar aflăm o contribuție egala a unui musician în domeniul componistic, interpretativ și muzicologie [9].
