OTHER SPECIFICATIONS

➤ The titles of all the documents in the text will be written in italics, without quotation marks.

Example: The monograph Stylistic trends in the compositional creation from the Republic of Moldova (instrumental music), author Vladimir Axionov, is a fundamental work...

➤ Figures, graphs, tables, images drawings, musical examples are placed directly after the respective reference in the text, are numbered - TNR 11, bold, italics + the name, TNR 11. The source: below the figure, centered TNR 10, italics + the source name , TNR 10 (eg.: Figure 3. A.Watteau. Morning Toilet. Source: The Art Museum. London. The Wallace Collection. 594 x 700 mm, oil/canvas). Duplication of material in the text, tables and figures is not allowed.

➤ Explanatory notes (if any) in the text must have a well-motivated presence, be concise and suggestive. References will be made through Arabic numerals placed to the right of the targeted word as an exponent (superscript). The notes will be given at the bottom of the page (footer) after a line, in the form of specifications, comments, with the indication of Arabic numerals, in the successive order of the text.

Example:

It is important to know different concepts¹ related to Information Culture, in order to choose the safe way to develop some programs.

QUOTATIONS

A quote is a fragment of a written work, reproduced exactly and usually with the exact indication of the source, in order to strengthen and illustrate an idea or an argument. The quote must be complete, without spontaneous abbreviations of the quoted text and without distortion of the author's idea. The omission of words, statements, paragraphs in the citation process is allowed if it does not affect the quoted text and is marked by ellipsis (...). Any text that belongs to someone else and is used in the form of a quote is enclosed in quotation marks "..." and the source from which the quoted fragment was extracted must be indicated [1 p. 125].

NUMERICAL QUOTATIONS

The quotation is the short form of the reference that allows the identification of the publication from which the quote or commented idea was extracted.

Numerical quotes in the text are indicated by Arabic numerals in square brackets immediately after the word to which the remark refers.

The number is assigned to the document when it is first cited in the text citation. Subsequent citations from the same document receive the number of the first citation.

After the number, indicate the page number [1 p. 125].

If the quoted idea comes from several works, the citations are separated by a comma (,) [1, 7].

The cited documents are presented in numerical order according to the appearance of the citations in the text.

► The language of the bibliographic description of the cited document is the language of the original.

Quotings in the text

Deși am folosit terminologia propusă de V. Martînov care împarte întreaga istorie a muzicii în patru perioade (cantus planus, muzica res facta, opus-muzica și opus post-muzica [1]. Conform muzicologului și culturologului A. M. Lesovicenko, cultura muzicală de tip european se distinge printr-un „complex de elemente muzical-culturale, constituite în Europa în decursul secolelor XVII și XVIII și răspândite apoi în întreaga lume devenind la mijlocul sec. XX drept proprietate universală a culturii umane” [2 p. 114]. Fiind și pictor-amator, conform informațiilor bibliografice din dicționare și enciclopedii (vezi, de ex., [3 p. 53–55]). Schița istorică atestă faptul că „începând cu anul 1884 instruirea în școala Capelei se efectuează după programele conservatorului cu eliberarea certificatelor de liberi profesioniști tuturor absolvenților, confirmând nivelul de studii superioare” [4]. Numele compozitorului este menționat în compoziția colectivului didactic al Gimnaziului nr. 2 din Chișinău...: „Profesorii: <...> de cânt – pr. Berezovschi Mihail Andreevici, de muzică — capelm. Iosif Iosifovici Sedleacek” [5 p. 22]. Instituții de învățămînt care asigură instruirea muzicologilor [6]. V. Gutu a activat ... și în Odesa în calitate de profesor la conservator, care a fost fondat pe baza colegiului, transformat, la rîndul său, din clasele de muzică de pe lângă IRMO [7]. Fapt, dovedit de T. Danița în teza de doctor [8]. Foarte rar aflăm o contribuție egala a unui medic în domeniul componistic, interpretativ și muzicologie [9].
